

BLIP + FACEBOOK

With Facebook ad costs rising and the digital advertising space becoming more saturated, it's important for marketers to adopt a holistic marketing approach and reach customers at multiple touchpoints in their journey. Blip makes it possible for small- and medium-sized businesses to get on billboards and reach new audiences in a big way.

If you're already spending on Facebook, adding Blip to your marketing strategy will maximize the effectiveness of your Facebook campaigns and diversify your offering for clients.

REACH MORE PEOPLE

Good brands understand their audiences and know how to reach them. Good marketers know that combining Facebook ads with other forms of advertising, like digital billboards, will help improve results and amplify marketing effectiveness.

According to a Facebook study, combining OOH and Facebook ads can "help influence younger consumers and reach niche target markets."

"With the widespread use of smartphones, the high visibility of out-of-home— 70% of people age 18 and older in the UK say they notice an OOH ad AT LEAST ONCE A WEEK This goes hand in hand with actions on digital channels such as social media. For example, nearly 4 IN 10 ADULTS surveyed (38%) in the US say they have visited a Facebook page or posted on Facebook after seeing an OOH ad, and 25% have posted to Instagram."

SEE RESULTS

Not only does the combination of OOH and Facebook advertising influence consideration, it drives results.

In a study done with Kantar to improve sales for a popular yogurt brand, Facebook found that “using both Facebook and OOH ads worked best—with the combined impact proving to be 13% more efficient than expected.”

UPLIFT FACTOR IN LIKELIHOOD TO PURCHASE

*The expected level is a factor of OOH only and Facebook only: $1:11 \times 1.20 = 1.33$
